Fighting for JOBS • PAY • CONDITIONS

Dear Lizzie Hieron,

It's time to do the right thing.

London Sanctuary repair workers do a vital job, carrying out repairs on Sanctuary Housing stock right across London.

For this they deserve to be paid fairly.

But instead, senior management have imposed a significant real terms pay cut and refused to recognise their union.

And, to make matters worse front-line repairs workers are on inferior terms and conditions than their office-based colleagues.

This is totally unacceptable.

WE BLAME SANCTUARY BOSSES!

Senior management's refusal to sort this out is to blame for the strike action now taking place and the disruption this is causing to residents.

Going on strike is an absolute last resort. But these workers can't afford not to.

Sanctuary Housing can easily afford to sort this out.

Sanctuary Housing is raising rents and service charges, has many millions in the bank and pays its CEO Craig Moule £380,000 a year – that's more than double the Prime Minister's salary. While its repair workers struggle to survive.

As residents and supporters, we urge you to sort this out. Talk to Unite.
WE DEMAND FAIR PAY AND UNION RECOGNITION NOW!
